FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Library Foundation's ART UNCORKED Relocates to Bigger Venue

November 22 Art & Wine Event at Spencer Road Library Kick Starts Holiday Shopping

(St Peters, MO – November 5, 2014) A new chapter begins November 22 for the St. Charles City-County Library Foundation's Art Uncorked celebration hosted this year at the Spencer Road Library. The popular wine, art and food event outgrew the Kathryn Linnemann branch where it began six years ago. Supporting the Library Foundation's efforts to improve literacy in our community, Art Uncorked: An Evening of Grape Expectations is twice as large this year with:

26 Featured Artists
Restaurants, Wineries & Breweries
Early Holiday Shopping

Live Demonstration by Chalk Riot
Silent Auction
Live Music by Chris Griffith

Guests will sample wines from Missouri vineyards and beers from local breweries paired with hors d'oeuvres from area restaurants and caterers as they explore the library. The work of 26 artists will be displayed throughout the branch with the opportunity for guests to meet the artists. Art Uncorked also makes gift shopping simple and fun with gift certificates from food and beverage vendors and artwork available for purchase that evening.

"It's thrilling to have Art Uncorked become so popular that we had to find a new location. This event provides key funding for our literacy initiatives. We've added some unique features this year. The Spencer Road Library is going to be hopping on November 22 with a new genre of fun!"
~ Kristin Williams, Library Foundation Executive Director
